Sen. McManus calls MYCF lawsuit frivolous and politically motivated

LANSING – State Sen. Michelle McManus issued the following statement condemning the Michigan Protection and Advocacy Services’ lawsuit against the Michigan Youth Correctional Facility. MPAS filed the suit today in Federal court in Grand Rapids.

“Just when it seems things can’t get any darker for the residents of Lake County, the groups that are against the MYCF found one more stunt to pull. The MYCF have never been cited by the Michigan Department of Corrections for being out of compliance with the state’s standards for the level of treatment and service MYCF inmates receive. These are frivolous claims brought on by a group long opposed to the MYCF, and this suit was clearly timed for maximum political impact.”
